Mr. Popper will explain the costs associated with any recommendations he makes and you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended products.

Mr. Popper is required to adhere to FCA's processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. FCA and its CCO monitor the advice that Mr. Popper gives by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed periodically to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives. Following these reviews, reports are prepared to assist Mrs. Smithey in supervising and monitoring the accounts. Factors that are considered include, but are not limited to the following: investment objectives, targeted allocation, current allocation, suitability, performance, number of trades, monthly distributions, concentrated positions, diversification, and outside holdings. Periodically, the members of FCA's investment committee meet to review portfolio holdings and suggest to the other members any changes that may need to be made.
